Treat your mother to a luxurious Mother's Day Weekend (4 to 5 March) at magnificent Lucknam Park

Lucknam Park is offering the perfect opportunity to reward your mother with a fabulous weekend away from the stresses of family life.

What better way to treat your mother on Mother's Day than a weekend away at this stunning Palladian country house hotel. Set in magnificent Cotswold countryside, Lucknam Park offers an excellent chance to spend quality time together in beautiful and luxurious surroundings. Whether rejuvenating in the Spa or settling down in the exquisite drawing room for an indulgent afternoon tea, this is the perfect opportunity for mothers to put their feet up and relax. From start to finish Lucknam's wonderful staff will ensure that your stay is luxurious and tranquil and that she will not have to lift a finger!

Lucknam Park has a range of facilities to suit everyone. Enjoy treatments in the luxurious Spa or simply relax together in front of a roaring log fire. For more active mothers, there are 500 hundred acres of parkland for long and leisurely country walks together or superb horses from the hotel's expert equestrian centre for gentle hacks or a bracing gallop around the estate. It is rare indeed to be in a suitable environment to disconnect from the outside world and enjoy each others company but this is certainly an excellent opportunity!

In the evening settle down with a glass of fine wine and a delicious dinner and enjoy the culinary delights of Lucknam Park's fantastic restaurant. Recently awarded 'Best out of Town' restaurant by Tatler. The Park Restaurant has gone from strength to strength since the arrival last year of top chef Hywel Jones. Experience the tantalising delicacies that fill the menu and truly indulge!

Why not give your mother a weekend to remember?

Stay for two nights at Lucknam Park from the 4th-6th March 2005 for £335 per room per night.
